

JAMAAL R. JORDAN
ASSOCIATE

jjordan@senniger.com
Voice: (314) 345-7032
Fax: (314) 345-7600

AREAS OF FOCUS

Mechanical Litigation

Mr. Jordan's practice covers all areas of intellectual property law, with special emphasis in preparation and prosecution of patent applications in the U.S. and abroad. His work focuses primarily upon mechanical patent preparation and prosecution.

Mr. Jordan received his Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Engineering (Biomechanics) from Marquette University in 2004. He received top honors for his Senior Design Project. Mr. Jordan graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2007, where he interned for Justice Louis B. Butler of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. He was also an active member of various school organizations.

Mr. Jordan is a member of the Missouri Bar Association.

EDUCATION

University of Wisconsin Law School (J.D., 2007)
Marquette University (B.S., Biomedical Engineering, 2004)

BAR INFORMATION

United States Patent and Trademark Office, Admitted 2010
Missouri, Admitted 2007

ACTIVITIES

Missouri Bar Association