

Six Senniger Powers Attorneys Named Missouri/Kansas Super Lawyers

ST. LOUIS (November 18, 2005) – Senniger Powers, a leading national intellectual property law firm based in St. Louis, today announced the inclusion of six of its attorneys on the 2005 Missouri/Kansas Super Lawyers list. Senniger Powers partners Robert M. Bain, Robert M. Evans, Michael E. Godar, David W. Harlan, Keith A. Rabenberg and John K. Roedel, Jr. were recognized for their outstanding performance.

Super Lawyers names the top attorneys in Missouri and Kansas as chosen by their peers and through independent research conducted by Law & Politics magazine. The list, published annually in KC Magazine and Missouri/Kansas Super Lawyers, is selected based on a survey of more than 17,000 active lawyers across the two states. Its goal is to identify the top five percent of attorneys in more than 60 practice areas.

To learn more about Missouri/Kansas Super Lawyers, visit www.superlawyers.com.

###

Senniger Powers, based in St. Louis, Mo., specializes in patents, trademarks, copyrights, antitrust and intellectual property litigation in the pharmaceutical/life sciences, mechanical, electronics, computers and software, and e-commerce industries. The firm recently ranked second among biotech/drug patent firms in the United States by PatentRatings, LLC, an independent patent research and ratings service, for the quality of patents prosecuted in 2004. For more information about Senniger Powers, visit www.senniger.com.