

Senniger Powers to Co-host "Manufacturing and Innovation - Leading the Path to Success" Seminar

ST. LOUIS (Dec. 4, 2006) - On Tuesday, December 12, 2006, Senniger Powers and RSM McGladrey will co-host "Manufacturing and Innovation: Leading the Path to Success," a St. Louis Business Journal-sponsored seminar. The event will focus on the challenges and opportunities for the manufacturing industry in the year ahead. Speakers at the event will include Edward J. Hejlek, managing partner for Senniger Powers; Tom Murphy, Executive Vice President of Manufacturing, Wholesale & Distribution for RSM McGladrey; and Eric Ashleman, Chief Executive Officer of Schutt Sports Manufacturing.

When:

December 12, 2006

Continental breakfast: 7:30-8:00 am

Presentation: 8:00-9:00 am, immediately followed by a Q&A session

Where:

Missouri Botanical Garden

434 Shaw Blvd.

St. Louis, MO

Who should attend:

Presidents, CEOs, CFOs, and other executives from manufacturing and distribution companies interested in growing their business.

Reservations/Cost:

Admission is free, but reservations are requested by Thursday, December 7. To RSVP, email your name, company name and phone number to Kelly at krowland@bizjournals.com. For questions, contact the St. Louis Business Journal at 314-421-6200.