

Senniger Powers Sponsors Diversity Clerkship Program

Senniger Powers is proud to announce its continued sponsorship of and participation in the St. Louis Diversity Clerkship Program. The program helps place minority students from area law schools in clerkship positions at participating law firms. These area law schools include Saint Louis University, Southern Illinois University-Carbondale, Washington University, and the University of Missouri-Columbia.

The kick-off event for this Clerkship Program, the Diversity Networking Reception, will be held on the evening of March 2, to provide an opportunity for attorneys and students to meet informally before the job fair portion of the program begins later in the month.
