

InfoStor Magazine* Features Senniger Powers as Case Study, Quotes Manager of Information Systems

Jason Ellard, manager of information systems at Senniger Powers, was recently quoted in the June 2007 issue of InfoStor Magazine. The article by Ann Silverthorn, titled, “The benefits of SANs for SMBs,” examines the firm’s quest to go paperless.

In the article, Ellard addresses the firm’s need for a scalable storage solution as well as a reliable system that limits data loss. With more than 80 years’ worth of physical documents, “We wanted something that would grow with us as we scan and store more documents on the network,” Ellard said.
